About Trimurti Temple

Trimurti Temple Devasthanam is a registered Charitable Foundation with tax-exempt status. The Foundation's mission is to build a temple in traditional Indian architectural style according to the Agama Sasthras. In the initial phase of the temple, fourteen sannathis with traditional Mandapams will be built as a place of worship for Balaji, Brahma, Siva, Durga, Hanuman, Padmavathi, Parvathi, Rama, Seetha, Lakshmana, Lakshmi Hayagreva, Sarasvathi, Ganapathi, Bala Ganapathi, Bala Murugan and Navagrahas.

Trimurti temple is currently open for worship everyday with Utsava Murthis located at the temple house on site.

Phase 1A: Site preparation to be completed by July 2013. Design of the Temple is well underway.

Phase 1B: Construction of the main temple to commence in August 2013.

Phase 2: Construction of a Hall for cultural and community activities. This will start after completion of the main temple.

Phase 3: Future expansion to include Guruvayurappan and Ayyappan sannathis.
